REMINDER:

A Public Involvement Meeting is scheduled to discuss Red Bank Corridor Improvements Tuesday, Oct. 1, 2013

The Ohio Department of Transportation (ODOT) has scheduled a Public Involvement Meeting to get input on transportation improvement alternatives being considered for the Red Bank Corridor project. Below are details about the meeting time and location.

When

Tuesday, October 1, 2013
6:00 p.m - 8:00 p.m.

Where

Madisonville Recreation Center
5320 Stewart Road

The Ohio Department of Transportation has been working collaboratively with the Red Bank Community Partners Committee (CPC) to identify and prioritize opportunities to reduce congestion and delays along Red Bank Expressway and at key intersections, improve accessibility and travel safety, and provide new accommodations for bicyclists and pedestrians.

Proposed plans to be discussed at the Public Involvement Meeting include:

- Reconstructing "Old" Red Bank Road
- Establishing a connection at Hetzel Street and Babson Place
- Making local network improvements at Brotherton Road, Erie Avenue and Murray Road
- Investigating a new roadway connection between Duck Creek Road and Medpace Way
- Developing a bike/pedestrian pathway plan for the community

The meeting will be held in an open house format with project representatives available to take comments and answer questions. A presentation followed by an open forum Question and Comment session will begin at 6:30 p.m.
